ABOUT US

OUR HISTORY

From the modest beginnings in 2017, Mainland Logistics and Oilfield services is an Iraqi owned established in Erbil Kurdistan Region of Iraq with international standards and has experience to a global service from air and sea freight, custom clearance, land transportation, private jet, specialty chemicals, injection pumps, corrosion control for refineries, production facilities, construction, HSE & inspection, drilling services, global life support, camp management, procurement and supply chain, spanning the border to border in and out of Iraq.

Mainland Logistics oilfield service was built on a foundation of integrity, solidarity, and transparent ethical business practices designed to foster steady growth supported by a dedicated long-term workforce team.

The company is recognized by the Iraqi Federal Government and Kurdistan Regional Government.

Mainland logistics oilfield service is registered and licensed by the Ministry of Natural Resources (MNR) and an approved vendors list (AVL). Functioning as a flat organization, our operation and customer service team and executive board have equal authority to make decisions and enact change. This policy, not usually adopted by larger companies, allows Mainland to efficiently expedite orders, quickly distribute valuable information, and integrate the latest technology in day-to-day activities.

OUR VISION

To be Iraq's premier organization as "the carrier of choice for existing and future clients". It's a vision that is shared by World Wide Freight Transport around the world in the shipping market. As we operate by continuing to deliver excellence as a leading regional service provider, as well as investing in our local workforce team, utilizing international expertise and building tight-knit partnerships.

OUR MISSION

To evolve gradually, and strengthen our business relationships through sound business practice and strategies enhanced by transparent communication. To improve and raise the quality and standard of living in Iraq through economic growth contributed by our different business divisions in combining its diverse portfolio of accounts providing clients quality and competitive turn-key solutions.

We are in the trenches every day assessing the integrity of potential suppliers to best serve our customers.

Sea Freight

Ocean freight business is one of the most important sectors of our international logistics business. Our ocean freight experts offer a full range and tailor-made international logistics solutions backed by long-history of experiences and the latest knowledge and technology, enabling a seamless door-to-door global logistics across the globe.

- Comprehensive consulting on the coordination of international transport and logistics
- Door-to-door transportation
- LCL and FCL management
- Handling of oversized and heavy weight cargo
- Online tracking and freight management system
- Customs brokerage
- Maritime cargo insurance
- Temperature and humidity control
- Dedicated containers on request of clients

Before shipping various goods, a shipper may wonder what customs clearance means and how it's relevant to their shipping options. Every international ocean freight shipment must meet the quota of customs clearance in each country. Customs clearance is a necessary procedure in permitting goods that are transported to a country through an authorized customs broker. Within this process, there's also information regarding shipments with imports and exports with parties involved in the process.

By contracting ocean carriers by total quantity of our shipments, we get most cost effective rate from them as Non Vessel Operating Common Carrier (NVOCC) so that we are able to offer the most competitive rate to our valued customers.

Enormous number of ocean freight experts in our global network are waiting for any kind of your requests, orders with flexibilities.

Custom Clearance

When the goods move from one country to another, there is one step your international shipment cannot avoid going through customs clearance. Customs activities are generally performed by dedicated experts, but good preparation can help you avoid unnecessary delays and frustration: the Freight Forwarding Experts share a few best practices you can adopt today to make the process flow smoothly.
